MMC EXTENDS SUPPORT TO SULTANAH AMINAH HOSPITAL JOHOR

JOHOR BAHRU, 8 December 2016 – MMC Corporation Berhad (MMC), a leading utilities and infrastructure group recently extended its support to Sultanah Aminah Hospital with a contribution consisting of essential hospital equipment as part of its CSR initiatives for the community in Johor.

Among the items donated were one (1) unit of ultrasound machine, four (4) units of vital sign monitors, two (2) units of pulse oximeter, five (5) units of infusion pumps, three (3) units of suction aspirators and twenty (20) units of baby bassinets and trollies.

MMC was represented by Encik Shahrull Allam Shah Abdul Halim, Chief Executive Officer of Johor Port Berhad and the items were received by Dr. Khadijah Abu Bakar, Deputy Director of Sultanah Aminah Hospital. The contribution will replace some of the hospital equipment that were damaged during the fire incident which occurred last October.

Encik Shahrull Allam in his speech mentioned that the corporate social responsibility initiative by MMC was to ensure that the Hospital's operations will resume back to normal and the welfare of society is well-taken care of. The fire that claimed the lives of 6 people was believed to have started out from the intensive care unit (ICU) of the Sultanah Aminah Hospital on 25 October 2016. Following the fire incident, MMC Group operating companies in Johor made an immediate contribution of 200 boxes of personal hygiene items to the victims.
